A voluntary referral is defined as being one that occurs prior to any positive test for illegal drugs or alcohol under this policy and prior to any other violation of this policy, including a criminal conviction of that individual for a drug- or alcohol-related offense. A decision to participate in the employee assistance or other treatment program will not be a protection or defense from discipline.
- 2) Any employee who voluntarily requests assistance in dealing with a personal drug and/or alcohol problem may do so through a private treatment program for drug and alcohol problems. An employee who is being treated for substance abuse in a recognized rehabilitation program may, if the Americans with Disabilities Act applies, be entitled to reasonable accommodation so long as the employee is conforming to the requirements of the program and is abstaining from the use of controlled substances and/or alcohol.
- 3) The cost of the drug or alcohol rehabilitation or treatment program shall be borne by the employee and, if applicable, the employee's insurance provider. Employees are limited to treatment for substance abuse one time only under this policy.

If an individual is asked to submit to a search and refuses, that individual will be considered insubordinate and will be escorted off the job site and disciplined, as appropriate. The employer may take whatever legal means consistent with policy that are necessary to determine whether alcohol, prohibited substances, or illegal drugs are located or being used on employer property. The employer may call upon law enforcement authorities to conduct an investigation if deemed necessary.

2. Searches will be conducted by management personnel or law enforcement authorities to and may or may not be conducted in the presence of the person whose property or work area is searched. Any suspected contraband will be confiscated and may be turned over to law enforcement as appropriate. Any person whose property is confiscated will be given a receipt for that property by the employer's representative conducting the search.
