Small Strides Preschool Now Open to TRI-Center Employees in Need of Local Childcare

Storey County, NV – Storey County is excited to announce that Small Strides Preschool, a childcare facility located within the Tahoe-Reno Industrial Center (TRI-Center), is now offering a convenient and reliable childcare solution for employees working in the industrial park.

Located at 1140 Venice Dr., Sparks, NV, Small Strides Preschool provides high-quality childcare with flexible hours from 5:30 a.m. to 8:00 p.m. to accommodate a variety of work schedules. Since this location is brand new, unlike many childcare centers, there is no waitlist at this location, ensuring parents can enroll their children without delays.

“We’re thrilled to have Small Strides Preschool as a key resource for working parents in our region,” said Lara Mather, Director of Business Development at Storey County. “Having a trusted childcare option near work helps employees focus on their jobs while knowing their children are in great hands.”

Small Strides Preschool offers more than just childcare—it provides an enriching environment where children learn, grow, and develop essential skills. The center is staffed by highly educated, hand-picked professionals who focus on early childhood development. Rather than simply providing supervision, Small Strides teachers engage children in meaningful learning experiences, fostering creativity, social skills, and cognitive development.
