Storey County Launches Storey Pets In Need (SPIN) Grant for Seniors 60 and Over

Virginia City, NV— In late 2024, Storey County Health & Community Services launched the Storey Pets In Need (SPIN) Grant, a program designed to assist seniors aged 60 and over with the costs of routine pet care. This initiative helps ensure that older residents can continue to care for their beloved pets by providing financial assistance for vet bills, medications, food, and supplies.

“We understand the vital bond between seniors and their pets, and the SPIN Grant is one way we can help alleviate the financial strain of pet care,” said Stacy York, Director of Health & Community Services. “This program will allow seniors to keep their pets healthy and happy, ensuring that they can continue to enjoy the companionship of their animals without worry.”

Important Details:

- The SPIN Grant covers routine vet bills, medications, food, and pet supplies.
- The grant does not cover adoption fees, surgeries, spay/neuter procedures, emergency services, or weekend services.

Seniors 60 and over in Storey County can apply for assistance via the SPIN Grant application form, available here.
