

On Nov 15, 2025, at 3:05 PM, Chavone Gable <chavonelaney@icloud.com> wrote:

Dear Storey County Commissioners,

I have had the pleasure of working at the Old Corner Bar for 14 years, where I have formed strong connections with the local community and welcomed visitors from around the world. The bar has consistently maintained a loyal and dedicated staff, with all current bartenders having extensive experience, averaging over 10 years of service.

I strongly believe that preserving the historic character of Virginia City is essential, and I think it is crucial to maintain the original charm of local bars. Many of my customers specifically seek out locally owned establishments, regarding them as integral to the community's character.

Considering these factors, I would like to propose Ryan Brandon, a respected resident with long-term ties to Virginia City, as a potential lessee for the Old Corner Bar. His involvement would ensure the continuity of employment for the current bartenders and safeguard the integrity of the bar's character.

This option aligns with the community's desire to maintain a sense of home and familiarity within local establishments, such as the Old Corner Bar, which many consider their second home.

Sincerely,
Terri Henry

On Nov 15, 2025, at 1:43 PM, Chavone Gable <chavonelaney@icloud.com> wrote:

Dear Storey County Commissioners,

I am writing to express my appreciation and support for the Old Corner Bar (OCB), a business I have been a part of for nearly 14 years. As a bartender, I have had the opportunity to serve a diverse customer base, including locals and visitors from various parts of Nevada and the East Coast, such as Carson City, Dayton, Las Vegas, and beyond.

Our bar's unique connection to the community is fostered through the knowledge and history shared with patrons who visit Pipers. This exchange of information not only highlights the richness of Virginia City's history but also instills a sense of pride and ownership among locals.

The OCB has become a gathering place for our community, providing a daily meeting spot for many locals. We also host holiday gatherings for individuals who may not have a family to celebrate with, resulting in a sense of camaraderie and belonging among our patrons.

Upon learning that Ryan Brandon will be assuming leadership, I wanted to express my enthusiasm for his continued direction of the Old Corner Bar. I am confident that he will maintain the spirit of our community-driven establishment, ensuring that it remains a welcoming space for all who visit.

Thank you for considering the importance of maintaining the Old Corner Bar as a staple in Virginia City.

Sincerely,
Ricky Lowry